Proclamation

IN CELEBRATION OF
MR. ROBERT "BOBBY" SUTTON

WHEREAS, The City of Plainfield is very proud of the many years of volunteerism and community service exhibited by Mr. Bobby Sutton, for the benefit of others. We respectfully salute him and we are appreciative of his effort; and

WHEREAS, today, we say "thank you" to Bobby as he is a very special person who has unselfishly given his time, love and mentorship, enabling our young people to grow, mature, become confident, successful, productive individuals; and

WHEREAS, through campaigns he taught residents how to review literature, engage in conversations with candidates for office; through his work with the NAACP, he taught people how to stand up for their rights; as an insurance agent, he informed people of the need to protect themselves and their loved ones; and through his community service work with various organizations, he taught residents about the value of working together and helping one another. Bobby also assisted many local individuals with obtaining gainful employment. He exemplifies my theme for the City of Plainfield: "Growth By Unity". And so we are here today, at this event, to give back, and to provide a token of our respect and appreciation to a man who has given so much.

THEREFORE, I, Sharon M. Robinson-Briggs, Mayor of the City of Plainfield, do hereby declare October 7, 2007, as Robert "Bobby" Sutton Day. We know that Bobby has a wonderful support system. Lots of love is extended to his wife, Mozella.
