

Mayor Sharon-Robinson-Briggs Announces the City of Plainfield Summer Youth Employment Program

If you are between the ages of 14 and 21 years of age, Plainfield Mayor Sharon Robinson-Briggs is pleased to announce that the City of Plainfield has begun preparations for the 2013 Summer Youth Employment Program.

During this five-week program, each youth participant will be provided a mentor and will be afforded the opportunity of job shadowing, occupational learning, leadership development skills and the inter-workings of municipal government or of a non-profit agency.

Interested residents, between the ages of 14 and 21, should contact Ms. Pattie Boone, Plainfield Action Services at 908-753-3524 or feel free to visit the PAS office at the address listed below to pick up an application.

Plainfield Action Services
City Hall Annex, 1st Floor
510 Watchung Avenue
Plainfield, New Jersey 07060