

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Are you interested in creating real change in your community?

The YWCA Eastern Union County seeks...

- Empathetic, reliable individuals to join our Domestic Violence Response Team (DVRT).
- All volunteers working directly with individuals affected by domestic violence must complete a mandatory, free 40-hour certification program provided by YWCA EUC.
- The next certification cycle begins Monday, September 9th 2013.
- A background check is required.
- Space is limited; those interested must contact YWCA EUC by Friday, August 16th.

Ready to join our team? Please Contact Lana Sacks • DVRT Coordinator • 908.355.1500 Ext:18
• lsacks@ywcaeuc.org

AGES 18
AND UP

DVRT TASKS INCLUDE:

- Working with local police department(s)
- Providing advocacy and emotional support
- Educating on the dynamics of domestic violence
- Working with a team
- Some evening and weekend availability

TO LEARN MORE ABOUT YWCA EUC, VISIT:

www.ywcaeuc.org

eliminating racism
empowering women
ywca