PLAINFIELD YOUTH BASEBALL LEAGUES MERGE

Plainfield, NJ – April 30, 2014 – The City of Plainfield invites residents and friends to Opening Day Ceremonies of the Plainfield Baseball League on Saturday, May 3, at 9 am at Joe Black Field on Rock Avenue. Mayor Adrian Mapp will throw out the first pitch.

The Plainfield Baseball League is the result of a merger between the City's Recreation Baseball League and the Queen City Baseball League. The new league will include T-ball, Pony, Minor, and Major Leagues.

"The City of Plainfield looks forward to a great baseball season," said Mayor Adrian Mapp. "In joining together, these leagues have put the interests of Plainfield's youth first. This will truly be one League, one city, and one community."

"Our mission is to serve and promote the art of baseball for those who want to take part," said Veronica Taylor, Superintendent of Recreation for the City of Plainfield. "Both leagues have a rich history, and we are proud to continue and strengthen Plainfield's love of baseball."
