"Help Bag Hunger" Event at ShopRite in Watchung, NJ

Plainfield, NJ – September is National Hunger Action Month, a time when organizations across the country will be doing their part to help combat hunger in their communities. In the spirit of community service, and to support this important cause, Mayor Adrian O. Mapp of the City of Plainfield sent members from his Administration, Vernita Sias-Hill, John Stewart, Jr., and Ron West to serve as honorary grocery baggers at the “Help Bag Hunger” event sponsored by ShopRite on Wednesday September 17, 2014 at its store in the Blue Star Shopping Center of Watchung on Route 22. Throughout the day, ShopRite Cashiers collected donations to help stock the shelves of local food banks, as representatives from the City of Plainfield helped raise awareness of those who are in need. “This is a very worthy cause, one that my Administration is proud to support,” said Mayor Mapp.
