The State of New Jersey makes reasonable accommodations during all aspects of the employment process, such as testing and interviews. The State also makes reasonable accommodations in the work environment to enable a person with a disability to perform the essential job functions and to participate equally with co-workers without disabilities. However, the State can only make reasonable accommodations when it is aware of a disability. It is up to you to inform the prospective employer if you need a reasonable accommodation. If you need a reasonable accommodation before the interview process begins, please inform the park office for which you are applying.
